Today's Gospel Reflection John 6:41-51

Jesus responds to the murmurs of the crowd, who wonders what he means when he says that he came down from heaven.

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

Those who believe will have eternal life. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.

Reflexión del Evangelio de hoy Juan 6,41-51

Jesús responde a los murmullos de la multitud, que se pregunta qué quiere decir cuando dice que bajó del cielo.

En la lectura de hoy, escuchamos a Jesús decir nuevamente, como lo hizo en el Evangelio de la semana pasada, que él es el pan de vida. También escuchamos a Jesús agregar que él es el pan vivo. Ambas declaraciones nos ayudan a comprender mejor el regalo que Jesús nos da en la Eucaristía. Celebramos este regalo de Jesús cada vez que nos reunimos para Misa. Creemos que recibir a Jesús en la Eucaristía nos llevará a la vida eterna.
