

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 9, 2026

Glorify the Lord, O Jerusalem!

Vemos hoy a los Apóstoles asustados y llenos de asombro, al descubrir que Jesús es el Señor todopoderoso, el Hijo de Dios (EVANGELIO). También el profeta Elías había sentido un miedo semejante cuando se encontró con el Señor en el monte donde Dios se había revelado a Moises (PRIMERA LECTURA). San Pablo (SEGUNDA LECTURA) vuelve sobre el tema del destino de los judíos, señalando que, a pesar de que no han reconocido a Jesús como el Salvador, siguen siendo el pueblo que recibió las promesas de Dios y del que nació Jesucristo.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
1 Kings 19:9a, 11–13a / Romans 9:1–5
/ Matthew 14:22–33
MIGUEL DULICK

In the first reading, Elijah is ready for anything—a whirlwind, an earthquake, a fire—because “the Lord will pass by” (1 Kings 19:11). But God comes tiptoeing, with a tiny whisper. Elijah, a giant of a prophet, covers his face like a child and wraps himself in the word of the Lord. Ordinarily, at this point, a homily would move on to the gospel. But in the second reading, from Romans, we are brought up short. Paul, a giant himself, would love a reassuring whisper from God. He is in utter agony, for the doubtful salvation of “my own brothers,” the Jews. Such is his distress that he wishes he could offer himself in exchange, even to the extent of being “accursed and separated from Christ” (literally, “anathema”) for “my kin.” (See Romans 9:3.) His anguish is heartbreaking, especially since it seems to be a prayer he has repeated over and over. Paul was no doubt thinking of Moses, who dramatically offered his own life to save the Israelites from God’s judgment after the golden calf: “[Lord,] if you would only forgive their sin! But if you will not, then blot me out of the book that you have written” (Exodus 32:32). Paul’s faith told him that Christ had opened the door of salvation to everyone, and even rejection by the chosen people could not close it. In fact, it confirmed its universal promise. A paradox perhaps, much like when Jesus walked on water, as we hear about in today’s gospel. ●

Dear Padre

August 9, 2026

I am in my third year of sobriety. Can I still become a eucharistic minister if I do not partake in Christ's blood?

Yes. Your personal sobriety practice has nothing to do with your eligibility for service as a minister of the Eucharist. Some would even argue that your commitment to sobriety is a powerful witness of your commitment to living a responsible and mature Catholic life. Instead of an obstacle to ministry, it is a shining example and witness of the power of God's grace at work in your life.

Practically, since ministers of the Cup are often required to consume any remaining Precious Blood after holy Communion is distributed, it might be a good personal practice to make sure there are enough ministers present to perform this necessary step in ablution. If everyone is informed in advance, it contributes to the shared sense of reverence and respect that is required of a eucharistic minister. ●
